

AUSTIN REPUBLICAN WOMEN

Volume 3, Number 6

Dear ARW Member,

Thank you for allowing me to be the Austin Republican Women's delegate to the National Federation of Republican Women Convention in Kansas City. This three-day biennial Convention honored the women of this great organization and elected our national board for the next two-year term. It's been so great to meet Republican Women from all over the nation and hear their viewpoints on issues and candidates.

Just when I think it's tough being a Republican in Austin, I meet a club president from Washington D.C. and realize that we have it pretty good!

I also had the opportunity to go to the Fox News Presidential Debate in Orlando last week. Two other ARW members also attended and it was great to take part in such a pivotal debate.

From the convention in Kansas City to the debate in Orlando to our meetings in Austin, one thing is clear. Americans are ready to elect a new president!

Thank you again for all your hard work to help elect our Republican candidates and further conservative causes. And a special thank you for all your assistance and donations to help the wildfire victims. As a club, we donated over $3,050 to our neighbors who were affected. You guys are great!

Keep up the hard work and I hope to see you at ARW's October 6th luncheon meeting.

Kim
2011 ARW President

Join us for our October Luncheon!

Austin Republican Women are privileged to have Michael Zak from Washington, D.C. as our October speaker. He will give you valuable information and facts regarding the Republican Party to counter liberal misinformation.

Thursday, October 6, 2011

11:30am - 1:00pm

Austin Country Club

4408 Longchamp Drive

(off Westlake Drive at 360)

$25 (cash preferred)

Michael Zak is the author of Back to Basics for the Republican Party, the acclaimed history of the GOP cited by Clarence Thomas in a Supreme Court decision. Mr. Zak is a popular speaker to Republican organizations around the country. His message is that Republicans would benefit tremendously from appreciating the heritage of our Grand Old Party. See www.grandoldpartisan.com for more information.

His book will be available for purchase and autograph before and after the meeting. Comment from a previous speaking engagement:

"Michael Zak takes a novel approach to the culture wars by boldly boasting the historical record of the Republican Party. Rather than sheepishly bow to the Democrat's ongoing myths (and frequently, outright lies) about the GOP, he brings the history and heroes of the Republican Party into the fray."

ARW New Member Social a Big Success!

On September 14th, ARW hosted a New Member Social honoring our new 2011 members. The night was a big success and we added several new members to our club. Welcome!

The event was hosted by Jim and Gina Hansen and catered by Ronda Karam. Several Republican candidates attended including Dianne Costa (running for US Congress, CD 25), Jeff Rose (Justice on the Third Court of Appeals), Jim Strickland (running for Travis County Commissioner Pct. 3) and Mike McNamara (exploratory committee to run for Travis County Commissioner Pct. 1).

Thank you again to our hosts, our speakers, (Justice Jeff Rose and TFRW Region 9 Deputy President Jennifer Lambert) and to all the ARW members – new and old – who attended the party. To see more pictures from the party, visit our Flickr page at www.flickr.com/photos/austinrw/ and click on the ARW New Member Social folder.

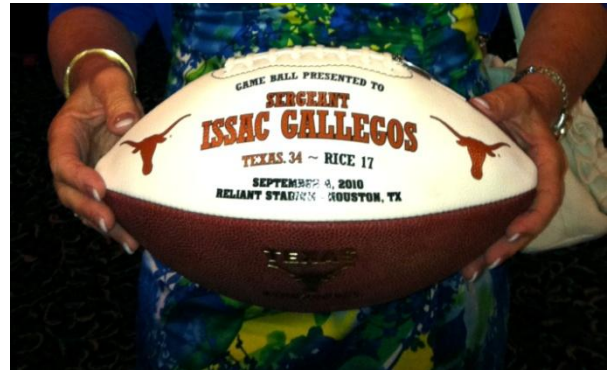

Remember, it's not too late to be a 2011 ARW member. Please invite your friends to our next meeting, October 6th at noon at the Austin Country Club.

Wounded Warriors Attend UT Football Practice

Austin Republican Women's Caring for America Committee, with the help of Dan Neil, took eight Wounded Warrior Marines from BAMC (Brooke Army Medical Center) to a University of Texas football practice on Sept. 21st. This is the second year in a row that ARW has had the privilege of doing this (practice is closed to the public), and, with Dan Neil's help, ARW plans to make this an annual event.

The Marines were very excited as they met the players and coaches personally. They were thanked for their service, and the coaches and players told them how proud they are of them. Several players have a father or brother in the military...some in the Marines. One Marine called his father to tell him that he had just met and talked with Coach Brown and Case McCoy, Colt McCoy's brother. "Imagine talking to a UT quarterback and one whose brother is in the NFL and to Coach Brown and all the others!", he said.

A touching moment was when Coach Brown had the team gather together and had each

Marine introduce himself, tell where he was from (one is originally from Australia, now from Texas) and tell how he was injured. The players interaction and reaction to them was wonderful to see.

The Marines don't know it yet, but each will receive a Game ball inscribed with his name and rank. This was done for the Marines from last year as well.

Our thanks to Dan Neil who arranged our visit and to Assistant Athletic Director for Football Operations Arthur Johnson who planned and facilitated the event for the Marines.
